Spring Equinox 2008

Astrologically, on or about March 20th-21st heralds the entrance of the Sun into the sign of 00 degrees of Aries. Emerging from Pisces and the 12th house, we reluctantly emerge from a surreal, embryonic cradle, starry-eyed and impressionable. Aries is the first sign of the zodiac and the starting point by which we begin our journey and evolutionary cycles.

0 Degrees of Aries is also called the Aries Point or AP. Astronomically, this point marks the place where the Sun crosses the equatorial plain in the North, or the Sun/Earth midpoint. Uranian Astrologers link 0 degrees to all the cardinal signs. Cardinal energy (Aries, Cancer, Libra, & Capricorn) initiates, is motivated into action and requires an outlet. Cardinal energy represents movement from an inner, passive quality to an assertive, outer quality. It is our will to be noticed, like seedlings pushing their way through the soils surface towards the warmth of light. Some would say that the first house and 0 Aries is where our spirit emerges and the starting point likened to the Fool's Journey in the tarot. Even though the Fool symbolizes the element of Air, his fire ignites his passion for independence and exploration. Emerging with creative energy and innocence he forges away on his path, consciously trying to learn from his life experiences through trial and error. The Suit of Cups in the tarot deck is also symbolic of Spring, water, emotions and love. Cups are intuitive and heighten our senses. We become more aware of our feelings and desires during this season. The expression "our cups runneth over" comes to mind with the outpour of love from our heart chakra.

on the scene, everyone knows about it! Think of the first house cusp as the emergence from the amniotic fluid (the hypnotic, watery 12th house). If you consider of the symbolism, when we are "birthed" it is often rather traumatic! There are people everywhere; lights, camera, action and out pops baby! Baby emerging from the womb cries out, "here I am", Hear me scream, I have arrived! Everyone, come hither! Well, this is Aries!...or the assertive, action oriented red planet Mars. Think and visualize the image of a Ram here. The Ram is usually seen on T.V. "butting" heads with other Rams...."ramming into" something or some one to have their way....get the picture? This is the masculine principle at its best.

The 1st house involves areas of our life having to do with the personality and how others see us; the face we show to the world. Very often you will hear others say he doesn't "look" like a Cancer or he or she doesn't "look" like a Sagittarian. That is because you are seeing their Ascendant sign, the sign rising on the horizon at the time of your birth. This is why it is so important to know a correct birth time when seeking an astrological reading from an Astrologer! Aries folks tend to want things...and they want them NOW! They are known for their endurance and physical strength. Physically, Aries have a youthful, buoyant, exuberance to their gait. Always alert and aware of their surroundings, they are quick witted and prone to sarcasm. Oh, and charm...Aries men maintain their boyish charisma throughout their lives. Aries women want a family and a career and maintain a high energy level. Both sexes usually have very sharp cornered eyes and their eyes are prominent in their physical appearance.

Aries in health issues relates to the head and face ... head injuries are common with Aries folks because they are Mars ruled and Mars can be rather feisty and very impatient. People with Aries rising or Mars in the 1st house come out fighting...have an enormous amount of physical energy and are usually very hardy. Negatively, they are prone to angry outbursts and impatience. On the positive side, they are intuitive and fearless, able to accomplish tasks others never attempt. Aries polar opposite (1st house - temperament and environment) is Libra (7th house- partnerships). The integration of "me" versus "us" is a life lesson for Aries, and contingent upon other areas of the birth chart.

Mythology of Ares/Mars

Greek God Ares' domain was WAR. He was the son of Zeus (Jupiter) and Hera (Juno). Ares was feared by most folk. Violence and battle for his own sake "turned him on". His own sister Athene calls him a "thing of rage, made of evil, a two-faced liar" (Guttman & Johnson, 1996). However, when the god of war is wounded or defeated in battle he flies angrily to Mt. Olympus to complain to his father who tells him: Don't whine at me, you two-faced liar. To me, you are the most hateful of all the gods on Olympus. Wars, fights and quarrels are dear to your heart".

The Romans called him Mars and he was considered a heroic God. In the birth chart, Mars points to your warrior spirit. Mars is how you take action and where you operate most quickly and independently in your life. Sexual energy is implicit in the study of Mars. He is the male or masculine archetype. Mars in the birth chart, its aspects to other planets and the house (s) it rules show where and how you exert your energy and force. It shows how you initiate the sexual act and your sexual nature. Mars is the ancient ruler of the sign Scorpio with the modern ruler being Pluto. Pluto indicates our unconscious and psychological complexes while Mars pushes this to the surface of our consciousness and initiates action into the world. When Pluto and Mars aspect each other in the chart, the sexual nature is significantly heightened.

Anytime I need to see your face I just close my eyes
And I am taken to a place where your crystal mind

And magenta feelings take up shelter in the base of my spine
Sweet like a chic-a-cherry cola

I don't need to try and explain; I just hold on tight,
And if it happens again I might move so slightly,
To the arms and the lips and the face of the human cannonball,
That I need to, I want to Come stand a little bit closer,

Breathe in and get a bit higher,
You'll never know what hit you,
When I get to you...

Ooh, I want you,
I don't know if I need you,
But, ooh, I'd die to find out.
Ooh, I want you,
I don't know if I need you,
But, ooh, I'd die to find out.

I'm the kind of person who endorses a deep commitment,
Getting comfy, getting perfect is what I live for,
But a look, then a smell of perfume,
It's like I'm down on the floor and I don't know what I'm in for.

Conversation has a time and a place in the interaction of a lover and a mate
but the time of talking, using symbols, using words can be likened to a deep-sea diver who is swimming with a raincoat

Come stand a little bit closer,
Breathe in and get a bit higher,
You'll never know what hit you,
When I get to you.

Ooh, I want you,
I don't know if I need you,
But, ooh, I'd die to find out.
Ooh, I want you,
I don't know if I need you,

important to him. An original and independent thinker, he is compassionate, courageous and has excellent powers of observation.

The Emperor can be cold and unfeeling relying completely on his own rules and laws that he utilizes to judge others. Negatively he can be inflexible, unyielding and stern. He may also be impatient and restless when under stress. If you draw this card reversed, you may feel more confrontational and sarcastic and there could even be a cruel or manipulative streak. Positively, because of his many years of experience, the Emperor indicates an innate understanding of the rules and laws of human nature. The Emperor may be symbolic of a man currently in your life or who will enter your life that will possess these characteristics.

When you see this card in a reading, you are being asked to set boundaries. The ego is determined to succeed and you have excellent powers of observation and analysis. You may ask yourself these questions: Are you being inflexible in some area of your life unable to see others viewpoint? Are you being overly judgmental? Are you experiencing achievement in some area of your life because of your years of experience?

BUDDING TREES MOON (Red Hawk)

In Native American Astrology, those born from March 21 - April 20th are born under the Budding Trees Moon and their animal totem is the Red Hawk. Their color is yellow and their totem in the mineral kingdom is the fire opal. They are of the Thunderbird clan.

The fire opal is similar to quartz and is found in sedimentary rock and in cavities in volcanic rock. Opal comes in a variety of tints and has a glassy to waxy luster. The opal has been used by native people since very early times. It is considered to be a stone of hope and was thought to render the wearer invisible when he or she did not wish to be seen.

Just like the opal, Red Hawk people can often be found near hot spots or places of pressure. They are open to new ideas and show an enthusiastic spark of interest to vital new information presented to them. They are catalysts,

In relationships, Aries ruling planet is aggressive Mars. If you have an Aries Ascendant, you appear alert, assertive, charming and have a forceful disposition. You may be more outgoing and aggressive than most. Because you are a fire, cardinal sign, stagnation isn't an option! You want to assert your influence over your environment and (all over) your partner and take center stage. Impulsiveness in relationships is possible. Aries can get out of a relationship even faster than they got into it!

With Venus ruled Libra on the descendant, you seek a beautiful, affable, feminine, high energy and articulate partner.

One of the first things you could look at when you have the birth data of a potential partner, is their Venus placement since Venus rules your descendant.

It is also possible for an Aries Ascendant to attract a partner who has Mars prominent in their chart. Prominent Mars would be in aspect to the Sun, Moon, Mars or Venus or elevated in conjunction to the MC (10th house cusp) or IC (4th house cusp) conjunct or ruling their Ascendant or Descendant or Sun sign in Libra, Gemini, Leo and Sagittarius.

Knowing the date, time and place of birth is important in making the determination of the Ascendant or Rising sign, the sign rising on the horizon at the time of birth. This cusp sets up all the other house cusps that are the divisions of the houses or areas of life.

To me flirting it's just like sport, anything fly
It's all good, let me dump it
Please set in the trumpet

Chorus:

A little bit of Monica in my life
A little bit of Erica by my side
A little bit of Rita is all I need
A little bit of Tina is what I see
A little bit of Sandra in the sun
A little bit of Mary all night long
A little bit of Jessica here I am
A little bit of you makes me your man
