Please accept my apologies for the lateness of this issue. I so wanted to get this particular issue out before our New Moon in Taurus, today, May 1st. I hope that you were able to do your New Moon visualizations anyway. This past week, my father died unexpectedly. He complained of chest pains and pulled over in his car. He was taken to the emergency room where he died 2 hours later from cardiac arrest. For those astrologers on the list or anyone with an interest in locating events in the birth chart, even when we do not find a "death" in the natives chart, you may very well find it in the chart of a spouse or child or sibling. As transiting Uranus at 2 Pisces is approaching a conjunction to my 4th house cusp (end of the matter, home, the father) and opposing my natal Pluto, many friends had predicted a physical move from my residence. Transiting Uranus, once it enters my 4th house could indeed mean a physical move. However, Uranus will stay in my 4th for approximately 7 years and a move for anyone is always possible within a 7-year timeframe. What transiting Uranus did show in my chart, was the death (end of the matter) of my father. Pluto (transformation) has also been dancing across my father's Ascendant (17 Sag) for some time now squaring his natal Mars. At age 70, hard Pluto aspects can be life threatening or life changing.

Dad and I would look up to the stars when I was a little girl. I loved the stars and would draw perfect little pictures of them, those 5 pointed stars we are all taught to draw. When he purchased my first telescope, I was so excited to see those stars, all the stars I could not see from "down here". From what my father tells me, in a letter he mentioned that I was so terribly disappointed when I looked through the telescope for the first time and saw that the stars were not perfect and pointed. They were diffuse and ambiguous and round. He told me that I was so upset that I didn't look up to the stars after that...I lost interest. I don't recall that event. I do know that I lost interest for a time...life always manages to get in the way. It does not matter because what is meant to be, eventually will be...no matter what the circumstances. Through that telescope I saw a whole new world. Perhaps at that young age and time I did know how that incident might impact my life...in the future. I do now. I've always enjoyed listening to children's songs and this one came to me yesterday. It was so appropriate for the "gift" my father sparked in me. This song is from the Aladdin Film - Disney.

Whole New World

I can show you the world,
Shining, shimmering, splendid.
So tell me Princess.....when you let your heart decide.
I can open your eyes,
Take you wonder by wonder.
Over sideways and under, on a magic carpet ride.

A whole new world,
A new fantastic point of view
No one to tell us no or where to go,
or say we're only dreaming.

A whole new world,
A dazzling place I never knew
But when I'm way up here...
It's crystal clear,
That now I'm in a whole new world with you.

Unbelievable sights, indescribable feeling
Soaring, tumbling, weaving through an endless diamond sky
A whole new world,
A hundred thousand things to see
I'm like a shooting star,
I've come so far....
...and can't go back to where I used to be...

Happy Birthday Taurus! For those born between April 21 - May 20th The Key Phrase is: I Own. Taurus is a fixed (directed, willful), earth (grounded, stable) sign located in the 1st quadrant (self oriented/personal) of the Eastern Hemisphere of the chart. Because Taurus resides in the 2nd house of the zodiac and is ruled by the planet Venus, beauty and possessing objects of beauty are important to Taureans. Possessions are valued and bring a sense of security to security-minded Taurus. As we discussed in the last issue, the sign of Aries inhabits the 1st house of the natural zodiac. That first house is the cusp of the Ascendant or as many already know as the Rising Sign. Because Taurus arrives immediately after fiery 1st house Aries, who wants to tell everyone they have "arrived", Taurus then asks, "What should I possess or own"? Taurus now desires to create a sense of security for him/herself. In order to build that sense of security Taurus develops a value system and that value system usually includes people, objects of lasting beauty, sensuality and the sense of touch, sensual pleasure such as food, jewelry, furs etc, the need to vocalize (Taurus rules the throat) those desires and a love nature. The ability to earn an income and special talents may all be found in the 2nd house of one's natal chart. If you have no planets in your 2nd house, look to where the ruler of that house (the cusp ruler) is located and, along with its aspects, this will give you a glimpse of where your talents, values and earning potential is derived.

Taurus in health issues relates to the throat and neck. Sore throats or laryngitis may be more common with Taurus. Taurus is distinguishable by their lovely, throaty voice and thicker than average neckline. Singers Cher and Barbra Streisand have Taurus as their Sun sign. Because Taurus is ruled by the planet of love, Venus, many Taureans possess a grace of movement and dress. The Taurus or Libran (also Venus ruled) are usually the best dressed in the room and show a certain amount of "class".

Taurus' polar opposite (2nd house - my values, my security, my money and possessions) is the intense, watery sign of Scorpio (8th house- others values, others money and possessions). The integration of "my values" versus "what others value" is a life lesson for Taurus, and contingent upon other areas of the birth chart.

FROGS RETURN MOON (Beaver)

In Native American Astrology, those born from April 21 - May 20th are born under the Frogs Return Moon and their animal totem is the Beaver. Their color is blue and their totem in the mineral kingdom is the chrysocolla, similar to the turquoise.

The chrysocolla ranges from green to blue green and has a glassy luster. It is often used for adornment in the form of jewelry. It is considered to be of medicinal use that will bring health and luck to the wearer. Beaver people combine within themselves the powers of the earth and the sky. It is important for Beaver people, who often remain too rooted in thoughts and at the earth level, to look up to the sky and to incorporate the lessons to be learned which are found there.

It is important for Beaver people to constantly grow towards their spirituality, as they will often become stuck at the material level.

May 1, 2003 - New Moon - 10 Taurus 33 -A New Moon is always about new beginnings and in the sign of Taurus could be the assimilation of a new value system, how we value ourselves and others, what we deem beautiful and perhaps even a new way of earning income. The Sabian Symbol for 11 Taurus (we always round up in degree) is all about taking time to cultivate and nurture our physical self by being near water or even drinking water. If this New Moon falls in your 7th house of relationships, it would mean tending to your personal and intimate relationships. Falling in your 10th, this New Moon would provide the possibility of new beginnings in your work environment and the public exposure you receive. Where does this New Moon fall in your birth chart?

May 16, 2003 - Full Moon 24 Scorpio 24 - Total Lunar Eclipse Scorpio is ruled by Pluto and Mars, what we value in our partnerships, other's security issues, sex and as well as finances of our partners come to the fore. Scorpio focuses on relating in relationships the balance that is required to join with another, partnering. Full Moon Total Lunar Eclipse is a culmination of events so anyone who has been undecided about a relationship issue may suddenly come to a decision or realization about its direction. Where does this Full Moon fall in your birth chart?

May 17, 2003 - Venus Enters Taurus - Venus is at home in her ruling sign of Taurus. Sensuality, objects of beauty and love and romance are in the air when Venus is in this touchy-feely earth sign.

Mars still in the erratic and progressive sign of Aquarius - Mars wants freedom in Aquarius and can be a bit unpredictable, erratic but innovative too.

May 20, 2003 - Mercury Retrograde in Taurus turns Direct at 11 Taurus - Mercury is a bit more disciplined and grounded in fixed, earth and can be a bit set in the thought process. I hope you backed up your computer systems and double-checked your correspondence. Mercury will turn direct so that your electrical and other communication devices will back to "normal" and running smoothly.

May 21, 2003 - Sun enters Gemini - Gemini is located in the 3rd house of communication, thoughts, our way of thinking, our neighborhood and our siblings.

May 31, 2003 - New Moon 9 Gemini 20 (Annual Solar Eclipse) Gemini is all about communications, siblings, duality, and change. The planet Mercury rules Gemini. In mythology, Mercury had wings and was unpredictable. Expect change.

Jupiter starts the month at 1 Virgo. Jupiter in Virgo may expand our awareness of our working environment, our health, people who work for us and our pets.

Saturn currently at 26 Gemini 1' Saturn isn't most comfortable in the sign of Gemini. Gemini is mutable air and changes. Nothing stays the same in Gemini and that causes anxiety for Saturn who prefers things to be settled. Saturn is currently opposite the Galactic Center - 26 Sagittarius.

Uranus at 2 Pisces 15 - Uranus will stay in the sign of Pisces until mid September when it back into the sign of Aquarius again.

Neptune starts out the month at 13 degrees 7 of Aquarius. She will start her backward motion and retrograde on May 16 and will end up at 13 Aquarius 7 on the 31st. She will stay in retrograde motion until October 23, 2003. At 10 degree of Aquarius she will station and start her forward movement again. If you have planets in conjunction (the same sign and approximately the same degree) opposition to this degree (Leo) or in square (Scorpio and Taurus) you will feel the illusive effects of Neptune's transit the most over time. A deeper understanding of what's underneath may come to the surface and your dream life may intensify during this time. The dissolution of boundaries and illusions or the uncovering of the truth will be revealed.

Pluto Retrograde (rx) until October 22, 2003 at 19 Sag 57'. Pluto is all about personal power and regeneration, throwing out the old and bringing in the new, oftentimes after a complete overhaul! In retrograde, Pluto simmers in silence, analyzing and probing the depths. When Pluto turns direct on August 28 of this year, look for some significant changes to be assimilated wherever this falls in your chart. Pluto is slow moving, and transforming areas of our lives takes time. Pluto is very patient, unlike his fellow Planet Uranus. However, when Pluto makes his move, it is live changing, and you will never be the same, nor will you want to be!

SABIAN SYMBOL'S:

This month we have two (2) New Moons! The first New Moon arrives on May 1st to start off the month of May while the 2nd New Moon will coincide with the very last day of the month, May 31, 2003!

NEW MOON May 1, 2003 - 10 Taurus 33

New moon = New Beginnings. New Moons augur a time to start new projects. Seeds (ideas and positive energy) planted during a New Moon will culminate and flourish during the Full Moon.

Since Taurus rules the 2nd house, this New Moon would be a good time to focus and visualize on these areas of your life. Starting a new work project or working on yourself is favored as well the purchase of items of value and beauty as an investment.

SABIAN SYMBOL for 11 Taurus:

A WOMAN SPRINKLING LONG ROWS OF FLOWERS

This is a serene image of the rewards that come from tending to the essential needs of a garden. In order for a garden to flourish, it is important to water often, weed and prune so that the dead flowers and/or weeds do not take the essential nourishment away from the budding seedlings and flowers. While gardening, it is important to stop and "smell the roses" as well so to speak. Gardening can be hard and tedious work. This symbol shows the rewards received from our disciplined efforts.

This may also symbolize the blossoming of an idea and enjoying the fruits of one's labor. Patience, nurturing, water and taking a rest are all meaningful in the above symbol.

Is there an area of life you are experiencing the need growth and nurturing? Call for a personal consultation (732) 462-5239.

FULL MOON May 16, 2003 - 24 Scorpio 53 (Total Lunar Eclipse)

With a Full Moon, we see a culmination or coming to a head the seeds planted during the previous New Moon cycle. Lunar ruled Cancer is usually more affected by a Full Moon and especially in her own sign. Since the May 16th Full Moon falls in the sign of Scorpio, this lunar energy will be emphasized. Scorpio is a fixed, water sign and resides in the 8th house of the zodiac. Issues involving your partner's values and finances, sexuality, and self analysis are emphasized depending on where this Full Moon falls in your chart. Because this Full Moon is also a Lunar Eclipse, the energies will be prominent within 7 days, 3 months 6, months, 9 months and 1 year. Some astrologers feel that eclipses transcend years of time and that once the energy of the eclipse manifests in your life, sweeping and permanent changes will be evident in your being and especially in the area of life the eclipse falls in your chart, as well as the aspects it makes to other points and planets in your birth chart.

Because this is a Lunar Eclipse, the emphasis will be on our instinctual "emotional" reactions, emotional makeup and emotions from our past; deeply hidden emotions and feelings passed down from our parentage, the mother more specifically. In the sign of Scorpio, these feelings may be especially intense, angry, and volatile and when brought to the surface can bring a sense of release and healing.

SABIAN SYMBOL FOR 25 Scorpio:

AN X RAY PHOTOGRAPH HELPS WITH THE DIAGNOSIS

An x-ray always allows one to see what usually can not be seen with our natural vision. A diagnosis is an act of identifying and making a determination. This symbol is saying that you may need to take a closer look to gain a better understanding of your situation. This could mean doing research, self analysis or even psychoanalysis. Perhaps a person who "can see" or has a unique perception could assist you in seeing what you alone may not perceive. X-rays have the ability to see through layers and lawyers. We, as individuals, have layers of "stuff", personal issues that remain hidden from view. This Full Moon, especially in the intense and probing sign of Scorpio, urges you to take a much closer look within your personal "closets". Some keywords for this symbol are: Radiation, Piercing, Underneath, Penetrating Insight, Revelations, Detective Work and Spying.

NEW MOON May 31, 2003 - 9 Gemini 20 (Annual Solar Eclipse)

Here we have both a Lunar Eclipse on May 16th and now a Solar Eclipse on May 31st! There is a lot of intense energy this month. With the May 16 Lunar Eclipse in the emotionally intense sign of Scorpio and now the Solar Eclipse in the mutable air sign of Gemini...we have quite a combination of energy!

SABIAN SYMBOL 10 Gemini:

AN AIRPLANE DIVES TOWARD THE EARTH AS IF FALLING

This symbol is all about risks, taking risks, daring but can also be one of disaster. There could be a sense of panic that things are not going, as you would like or as initially planned. Someone needs to take control of the situation to prevent panic and to reassure you that all will be alright. It seems that this is a time when you must muster up the courage to stay centered and balanced so that you do not "crash".

SOUL MATE RESPONSES:

After the April Lunar Notes, I received so many positive responses. Everyone shared some aspect or experience of his or her current relationship. I've heard that many of you have filed for divorce, or your partner has decided to end your relationship. What I heard from you mostly echoed some of my own thoughts about relationships.

It takes a long time to get to know a person. So many people rebound into another relationship soon after their last relationship has ended. Some have consecutive relationships because they "fear" being alone. They may keep you strung along while they are in the process of "setting up" their next conquest. When you jump into a new relationship without first understanding what went wrong in the current or last relationship, you are setting yourself up for failure in your next partnership. You really need to take a good look at why the relationship ended. Perhaps you each had different expectations within the relationship. Did your values differ? Did you communicate your wants and needs and values to your partner at the start? If you did, then terrific for you! Did your partner disclose and communicate their expectations for your relationship? If they do not know what they want and need then how will they know if they have found it in you? You need to be very clear about what you want, what is negotiable and what is not. If you are not, you will inevitably be disappointed.

So what happens if you've been upfront, honest, and communicated your expectations to your partner and your partner "said" they wanted the same, or so you thought. They have basically been going along with you and the relationship for months or even years...then suddenly they change their mind. What if they change their mind and "forget" to tell you they have changed their mind and their expectations for your relationship? Very often one person will lay the cards on the table while the other partner conceals his or her hand. This is dangerous and creates a scenario where one feels betrayed and loses trust in the person who has been hiding important information about him or herself. I call this the "Agenda". This has been the case with at least one or two people who have contacted me recently. I think that some partners actually do have a hidden agenda when entering into a relationship. There are so many important issues to discuss and for some, the issues may seem daunting. Your partner may be thinking, "if I tell her "that" she won't feel the same about me" or "if I ask for this, I won't get my needs filled so I just won't mention it". All this behavior and thinking creates is a cloud of deception and unfulfilled desires. It creates distance within the relationship and may even cause one or both partners to "back away" to really see what is going on. Of course, the person who doesn't get what he or she wants because they failed to ask for it may then go on to "blame" the other partner for not providing it! This is called "passive-aggressive" behavior. HOW are you suppose to know what your partner wants and needs if they don't tell you!? I mean, unless you can read that person's thoughts, with any accuracy, you are doomed to fail!

Okay, another scenario is telling your partner what you want and desire and then have that partner "ignore" your requests and continue with the "old behavior". Over time, if you ignore your partner's requests, are not validating their requests and feelings, they will feel that you do not care or that their needs are unimportant to you. They may feel that you overstep their "emotional boundaries" and don't really know them at all.

Oftentimes, the choices we make in our relationships are out of fear of being alone, insecurity or impatience rather than really examining the other person, who they are, the truth about that person and how they really fit into our lives. If you did this on a regular basis, you might not like whom you see or simply realize that he or she is not "the one" and move on, with integrity.

Hidden Agenda

Now baby, he keeps saying that
He tells you you're the only one
But everybody knows he's out there having fun
Behind your back & that's a fact & it 'ain't right
'cos he's a fly guy acting like a gentleman

And I'm being straight with you
'cos he takes you for a fool
so you should be on your guard
when he thinks you don't have a clue
and I think if the truth be known that you'll end up all alone when he gets everything he wants...

What you see is what you get (with me)
Ain't no hidden agenda...

Now lady, when he tells you
That he loves you & won't give you up
Takes your car and it's your money that be filling it up
Look at what he's got, thinks he hit the jackpot, and it 'aint right
'cos your connections keep him sweet & that's so typical he's only in it for himself & that's so cynical he'd be out of sight girl if you lost it all.

What you see is what you get (with me)
Ain't no hidden agenda
I just want to be your friend

'cos there's no reason to pretend that's the difference with me.
