Happy Birthday Sagittarius! For those born between November 22nd - December 21st. The Key Phrase is: I See or I Seek. Sagittarius is a mutable (changeable, flexible), fire (intuitive, impulsive, idealistic) sign located in the Western Hemisphere of the chart. Your ruling planet is expansive and "benefic" Jupiter. The planet Jupiter is our largest planet and it was recently discovered that he's got a few more moons than we originally thought...eleven moons to be precise. Eleven is a Master Number in Numerology and considered to be the "Master Teacher". Jupiter sure does love to teach...or preach for that matter! That Jupiter was discovered to have so many more moons shouldn't surprise us because it is the planet of "abundance". Whatever Jupiter touches by transit in your birth chart will literally expand in nature. Jupiter can bring wonderful gifts and some have even called him "Santa Claus". However, you know the expression about too much of a good thing, right? Sometimes when Jupiter transits areas of your chart, there can be financial gain or weight gain! Excessive behavior or over doing it can be linked to Jupiter. Jupiter and the sign of Sagittarius reside in the 9th house of the zodiac. The 9th house is typically linked to long distance travel, philosophies and belief systems, religions, higher education, publishing, counseling and the law as well as exploring new horizons. Horses are usually linked to the sign of Sagittarius and the 9th house although most large animals coincide to the 12th house. I'll go into why horses are in the 9th when I discuss Chiron later in the newsletter.

Jupiter has a cycle of approximately 12 years while Saturn has a 14-year cycle. Think back to these years in your own life and recall the events when you were ages 12 and 14. I'm sure you have all heard the expression along the lines of "the Lord giveth and then takes it away? This clearly explains the Jupiter and Saturn cycles. Jupiter over expands everything and creates abundance, when Saturn comes along approximately 2 years later and "corrects" Jupiter's excess. This sounds a bit like our stock market, doesn't it? There are cycles of ups and downs. It's important to keep this in mind when we try to understand the nature of Sagittarius and it's ruling planet Jupiter.

"Truth, Justice and the American Way" - Was Superman a Sagittarian?

"Faster than a speeding bullet, able to leap tall buildings in a single bound, able to bend steel in his bare hands! Look! Up in the sky! It's a bird, it's a plane, it's SAGITTARIUS!" Well, he might as well be! Have you ever known a Sagittarian who didn't fly? "Planes, Trains and Automobiles". That is where you will find a Sag. Sagittarians are known to be the bachelors of the zodiac and make no doubt about it...these guys are smooth and charming. In fact, you might say charm is their middle name, their first name...and their last name too...only thing is by the time you get to figuring out exactly what their last name is, they are GONE. They are not going to share that last name with anyone! Jupiter wants to scale mountains, run marathons, and fully develop every bit of their potential. Sometimes this means going beyond the limits which is why many Jupiterians think they are "off limits" to others or untouchable. There is always that urge to align themselves with a greater ideal or truth and understanding of just about anything. Sagittarians have a unique way of rationalizing everything too and they also have foot in mouth disease. Meaning: Open Wide and stick foot in as far as it can go! If you want the truth and nothing but the truth so help you G -d, ask a Sag. They will blurt it out willingly, with a smile...and then an apology...if you're that fortunate.

"My stupid mouth, has got me in trouble,
I said too much again,
To a date over dinner yesterday,
And I could see she was offended
She said "well anyway...."
Just dying for a subject change.

Oh, another social casualty
Score one more for me
How could I forget?
Mama said, "think before speaking"
No filter in my head
Oh, what's a boy to do....." John Mayer - Room for Squares CD - My Stupid Mouth

I once dated a triple Sag. Triple is defined by having his Sun, Moon and Ascendant or Rising sign in the sign of Sagittarius. When you have many planets in the same sign and close together by degree, they share a certain amount of intensity in that sign and the ruler of that sign becomes very pronounced in the energies in the birth chart. This generally equates to having Jupiter times 3 in your chart (although he had his Mercury in the sign of Sag too) ie: Jupiter, Jupiter, JUPITER is equivalent to going, Going, GONE! POOF!...and off he went....along with all the other Sag's I've dated. My astrologer friend Bill and I were discussing this recently and he said "Perhaps you need to find a nice Virgo instead" ☺ Well, Virgo's are bachelors # 2 of the Zodiac and we already addressed them a couple of issues back. Don't get me wrong. I love Sagittarius...that's why I am still "single". They don't usually "ripen" until after age 45 though...if you can wait that long ☺

CHIRON - The Wounded Healer, Teacher and Seeker

"He's everything you want, he's everything you need, he's everything inside of you that you wish you could be, he says all the right things, at exactly the right time, but he means nothing to you and you don't know why" - Vertical Horizon

In Mythology, when Chiron was born, his mother rejected him because he was born a Centaur...half man and half horse. When his parents Hera & Zeus saw their new son's image they abandoned him, repulsed by his body and physical form. Chiron's first wound was one of abandonment and rejection and a perpetual longing for the love and "relationship" to his parents, especially that of his mother. The astrological glyph or symbol for the sign of Sagittarius is just that, a Centaur holding a bow and arrow pointed to the heavens.

One of Chiron's life lessons is relinquishing his painful memories from childhood. Because Chiron is immortal, his pain is eternal. Much of his pain was of his own making. When we are able to heal our primary wound (s) in life, we are usually able to utilize that experience to assist others with similar wounds and painful life experiences. That is if we choose this path. Oftentimes, people can be in so much emotional pain, or have not forgiven others or themselves so they choose to harm others as a projection of their own needs not having been met. A vicious cycle ensues and you will attract others to play out your dramas for you to take a look at, time and time again.

As Chiron matured, he became quite a wise teacher (Sagittarius/Jupiter) and a shamanic healer. The placement of Chiron in your birth chart shows your deepest wound by house position and aspects it makes to other planets and cusps (the divisions of the signs) in your birth chart. This is also the place you will find your greatest strengths and ability to heal others. Chiron connections are very significant in synastry. Synastry is the comparison of two birth charts that shows compatibility and relationship to each other. When people enter into relationships where there is a strong Chiron connection, the relationship takes on a fated quality. These relationships are usually not easy at first. The difficulties inherent in Chironic relationships must be overcome for the personal growth of both individuals. That is the test of Chiron's placement.

I discuss Chiron in more detail on my website: www.FuchsiaStars.com

JUNO - Relating - The Great Mother Archetype - The Wife

Last month's discussion associated Juno with the sign of Scorpio and her role in relationships, marriage possessiveness and infidelity on the part of Zeus/Jupiter. An astrologer friend, Martin Stock, wrote to me privately on another aspect of Juno. He states: " I have always believed that Hera/Juno is a vestige of the Great Mother Archetype and the portrayal of her being constantly pissed with her husband is more related to her having been usurped from power and relegated to the home and hearth (the fate of the vast majority of women who have philandering husbands) after millennia of being the power on the throne, not behind it." As always, context is essential to comprehension and I see the Hera/Juno archetype as presenting an image of women who are diminished by their being sidelined and their rage is spent impotently on those who surround the central problem of their lives - the giving up/ giving away of their personal authority and independence." Thank you for expanding this interpretation for us. Martin Stock is a Reiki Master who will be teaching a Japanese Lineage on weekends. He resides in Toronto, Canada and can be reached via e-mail: kalima@dsl.ca

LONG SNOWS MOON (Elk)

In Native American Astrology, those born from November 22nd- December 21st are born under the Long Snows Moon and their animal totem is the Elk. Their color is black and obsidian is their totem in the mineral kingdom. Obsidian is a type of volcanic glass that is usually shiny like glass. It has razor-sharp edges and therefore should always be "handled carefully." Obsidian was used in carvings and for jewelry as well as for mirrors. It was also crafted for use in arrowheads. Because obsidian comes from deep within the earth it is said to be a grounding mineral.

Elk people are very similar to the properties of obsidian. They can be good mirrors for other people as well as project "their stuff" onto others. They are often rough around the edges or difficult to get to know because of the uneven outer surface. Elk people can be very protective of those they love or from "perceived" danger. "They try to get as many cows as they can into their harem, and they will fervently defend them from the approaches of any other male". (Medicine Wheel-Earth Astrology, Sun Bear and Wabun) They are often introspective and clairvoyant. The Elk is a very strong and elegant animal and perhaps one of the most regal in the deer family. Men of this totem are competitive with each other about the women in their lives and can be prone to fits of rage or jealousy that may come as a surprise to those close to them.

VENUS RETROGRADE STORIES

Venus, planet of love, beauty, finances and how we earn money, our values and what we value as well as what makes us feel secure has finally completed her retrograde (apparent backward) motion. She turned direct on November 21st at 00 Scorpio! While Venus was retrograde it is very likely that relationships and/or our finances or values underwent some scrutiny and now that she is direct, we have the tools necessary to make some changes in our lives.

Last month I found a kitten no more than 4 weeks old. He was so tiny and cold and hungry and he seemed listless and perhaps sick. Because he wasn't moving much, I scooped him up in my arms and stuffed him in my jacket, got into my car and drove home. He didn't move at all and stayed asleep. When I walked into my house, I called to my daughter and told her I had a surprise. She was really excited and hoped we could keep him. I say him, because it kind of behaved like a boy (I've always owned cats). We proceeded to clean him up, pull off 4 ticks and isolate him from my other cats. He was adorable. The next day, I took him to the vet for an exam and to see if he had any fleas etc. The regular Veterinarian was not there so I saw the one on duty. Everyone hovered around this adorable kitty that was SO tiny. He weighed in at 8 ounces ☺ The Doctor said, as she lifted him up to check his sex,

"it's the man!" Okay, he's a little boy cat and now we must think of a name. I brought him home, and after much consideration, my daughter decided upon the name Simba...because it seemed like he just "couldn't wait to be King!" For those of you who don't know, Simba was the young cub in the film "The Lion King", who grew up to be "King". Sounded good to me. This listless kitten turned out to be the little terror of the household antagonizing the other cats, eating all the food, climbing and jumping all over everything and had an over abundance of physical energy. Even though he had the face of an angel, he was a little devil. A few weeks alter I brought him in to the Veterinarian for his first shot, and I took my daughter with me. My regular Vet was there and examined him, gave him a shot, and he weighed in at 3 lbs. The little critter would not sit still. The Veterinarian said, Simba is a FEMALE! My daughter burst out "I KNEW IT!!" I just laughed and told the doctor that after the last Vet examined him/her I never thought to check again. Because of "her" behavior and assertiveness, I automatically thought it was a male cat....even though he looked like a female. This all happened during Venus Retrograde in Scorpio! For those astrologers out there who love birth data, the Vet gives little Simba, now called Meow-Meow, a date of birth of August 15, 2002, Englishtown, NJ appx 10am. Yup, "she" is a "Leo" with a Sun/Mars conjunction in opposition to Uranus. This time gives her a Libra Ascendant with Venus Conjunct. This makes sense to me because she has such a pretty face and can be so sweet, yet she is a wild woman!! This all happened during Venus Retrograde in Scorpio!

As I mentioned in my last newsletter, it was possible for old lovers, friends, partners or financial issues to resurface during this retrograde. Has this happened to anyone? Well, it happened to me and was I ever surprised. Those of my friends who are reading this newsletter will automatically know who I am talking about. One of my first boyfriends after the end of my marriage, called me last week. I did not recognize the voice when he said, "Hi Lorraine, this is XXXXX, how have you been?" I said, "Excuse me, who is this?" I seriously didn't recognize the voice. It sounded different, softer than it once sounded. Also, I wasn't certain if I understand him correctly when he said he had a new name..I was confused. This new name was that of a female. My ex boyfriend was no longer a "male" but a "female" and told me that he really always liked me and thought we could still be "girl friends". She started to tell me about her new dating experiences....with men. I'm still digesting all of this. I can't imagine how difficult this must have been for her and I give my blessings to her in her new life.

I also ran into an ex "Scorpio" boyfriend in the metaphysics aisle of Barnes and Noble after not having seen him for 4 years.

I had a boy kitten who is now a girl kitten and an ex boyfriend who is now a female. I really started to reflect during this Venus retrograde period. I started to give serious thought to issues of Gender and how "we", society, inherently treat men and women differently, especially in relation to outward appearance.

Okay, I know I've had enough of Venus retrograde in the sexy sign of Scorpio....how about you?

DECEMBER OVERVIEW:

Since October 11 - Saturn Retrograde (rx) (delays, commitments, the past, wisdom, restrictions, teeth, skeletal system, skin, hard work) is still in his retrograde journey since October 11th at 29 Gemini and will stay rx until February 2003 when it turns direct at 22 Gemini. When Saturn is rx, you can count on delays and restrictions. Feelings of being held back or being forced to focus on a specific task in the area of life (house) your natal Saturn is located as well as the house transiting retrograding Saturn will be in will be highlighted during this retrograde period.

November 19 - December 8 Mercury enters the philosophical sign of Sagittarius. Sagittarius is a mutable fire sign.

November 22nd - The Sun entered the optimistic and truth seeking sign of Sagittarius.

November 21st - Venus Direct - Venus (love, beauty, relating, aesthetics, money, finances, values) is still in her retrograde motion (an apparent backward motion of the planet) since October 10th and through November 21st. She turned stationary retrograde (S Rx) at 16 Degrees of Scorpio and will end up at 0 Degrees of Scorpio on November 21. When Venus turns direct after her retrograde cycle, it is possible now to assimilate all that we considered and events that happened while she was retrograde. Since we revisited our values including how we value ourselves, our relationships, our relationship to money, it is now possible to incorporate those lessons into our current and future value system, relationships and our financial outlook. Anything that was unresolved during Venus's backward motion should be easily resolved now. The circumstances should be clear and your ability to make appropriate decisions in these areas of your life will be highlighted in the upcoming months. Now is the time to purchase any luxury items you have had your eye on while Venus was retrograde. How many of you made purchases while Venus retrograded that you no longer have the same need for after November 21st? Any ex lovers return? Any break-ups? Have you experienced financial reversals? I'd be interested in hearing any Venus Rx stories you have.

December 2, 2002 - Mars enters Scorpio at 9:27 AM EST.

Mars is changing signs and will reside next to Venus (love, beauty, value, relating) and Juno (what we are committed to) in the sky...all in the intense and penetrating sign of Scorpio. Stamina and perseverance are indicated when in the fixed, feminine, water sign of Scorpio. You may feel less likely to compromise and be more stubborn in areas of your life ruled by Mars. You may feel less forgiving of others and of yourself (because Scorpio is fixed water (stubborn and less likely to make changes that affect emotional stability)). Mars is the ancient ruler of Scorpio (before the discovery of Pluto). Houses ruled by the planet Mars (and Pluto) will be those where both Aries and Scorpio are on the cusp. With Mars in Scorpio, your determination will be more focused. People are also apt to hold grudges longer and decision that we didn't make during Venus's retrograde will now be made as Mars forces his way onto the scene.

December 4th - New Moon Total Solar Eclipse - This New Moon at 11 Sagittarius 58 is at perigee (close to the earth). This New moon Solar Eclipse is happening the same time that Jupiter will retrograde in the sign of Leo until April 4, 2003. Expect some new developments and grand or spectacular events and communications from those around you especially around the Full Moon at 27 Gemini on December 19th. We have a Fixed Star at appx 10/11 degrees of Sagittarius called Antares that is in close proximity to this Total Solar Eclipse. Antares is one of the Royal Stars of Persia located at the Heart of the Scorpion. It is said to offer worldly success. Ptolemy states that its energy is similar to both Mars and Jupiter and therefore a person with Antares conjunct (same degree) a planet in their birth chart will tend to go to extremes and can even be ruthless in attempts to succeed. This can affect the heart muscle..so please be careful if you have this placement in your birth chart.

December 4th - Jupiter Stations Retrograde at 7:23 am EST at 18 Leo 6 and will stay in retrograde motion until February 22, 2003 when it will reverse its motion, going stationary direct at 8 Leo 3. Much of what we believe about ourselves and the world we live in will undergo some change during this introspective time. Jupiter will stationary retrograde at the same time as the New Moon Total Solar Eclipse. Even though Jupiter will be withholding some of its energy, since it is also a New Moon and a Solar Eclipse too, we can expect a new self awareness. Check the house (s) in your horoscope where Sagittarius is on the cusp. There may be changes in that area of your life.

December 9th - Mercury (thoughts, ideas, siblings) enters the structured, cardinal earth sign of Capricorn.

December 19 - Full Moon 27 Gemini - Gemini is ruled by the planet Mercury and the 3rd house. This Full Moon is all about communication, how we communicate, our thoughts and ideas and duality. Gemini is a double sign...the sign of the "Twins". Gemini can also involve neighbors or the neighborhood in which you live as well as children and siblings. The Full Moon in Gemini also rules automobiles and short distance travel so please be careful driving especially during this full moon.

SABIAN SYMBOL'S:

For those of you unfamiliar with the Sabian Symbol, the original Sabian Symbols were written in 1931 by Marc Edmond Jones. They were later revised by Dane Rudhyar and others have re-interpreted the symbols periodically. One of my favorite modern interpretations is written by Lynda Hill. The basis of these symbols is derived from the 360 degrees in the zodiacal circle. Each sign of the zodiac: Aries, Taurus, Gemini and so forth, is comprised of 30 degrees. Since there are 12 signs in the zodiac, that would be 12 signs X 30 degrees = 360 degrees. There are 360 Sabian Symbols and each symbol coincides with and describes each degree of the zodiac. If you know your birth chart, utilizing these symbols for each of your planetary placements is rather telling and will provide you with greater insight into your own character traits and motivations.

NEW MOON Total Solar Eclipse December 4, 2002 - 11 Sagittarius 58 (Perigree - close to the Earth)

New moon = New Beginnings. New Moons augur a time to start new projects. Seeds (ideas and positive energy) planted during a New Moon will culminate and flourish during the Full Moon.

Since Sagittarius rules the 9th house of (societal and personal) philosophies, beliefs, travel and counseling, this New Moon would be a good time to focus and visualize on these areas of your life. Since this New Moon is also a Total Solar Eclipse, the energy is more intensified. The energy of Eclipses usually last over several months time. Some astrologers believe that Eclipse energy is triggered repeatedly over many years. Eclipses tend to make things happen and force change. Earthquakes and eruptions seem to correspond to Eclipse activity. Sometimes Eclipses are the "A Ha" we need to bring the unknown or undecided to culmination. I have noticed that Eclipses tend to deliver their message a few times, first clue might be on the day of the eclipse, then within 1 week, 3 months, 6 months and within 1 year. Because this is a Solar Eclipse, it will more than likely affect your identity and ego (sun) and outward focus in the area of life (house position) where this New Moon Total Solar Eclipse falls in your birth chart. Solar ruled Leo is usually more affected by a Solar Eclipse while Cancer's are more affected by the Moon ruled Lunar Eclipses. Since the December 4th Eclipse falls in the sign of Sagittarius, Sagittarians can expect significant changes in the area of life this New Moon Solar Eclipse falls in your chart.

Since this Eclipse coincides with Jupiter, ruler of Sagittarius, going retrograde (apparent backward motion) the energy of Jupiter will be more internalized and introspective.

SABIAN SYMBOL for 12 Sagittarius:

A Flag Turns Into an Eagle; The Eagle into a Chanticleer Saluting the Dawn

Flags and Eagles are truly Symbols of America and the United States. A flag is transforming into a live bird that soars towards the heavens. An eagle is a very proud and regal bird with a keen sense of vision. The symbol of the Flag has been "woven" into our consciousness since September 11, 2001.

The image is one of spiritual transformation. The Eagle is one of the 3 symbols (scorpion and phoenix) for the sign of Scorpio and the 8th house of the zodiac. The eagle symbolized in the above Sabian is showing us the evolution in the American consciousness and in the United States specifically. It is urging us to embrace "change" in our attitudes and purpose. This degree happens to oppose the Uranus/Mars midpoint of the USA's chart. The Eclipse opposes Uranus 8 Gemini/Mars 19 Gemini in the 10th house.

Is there an area of life you need to transform? Call for a personal consultation (732) 462-5239.

FULL MOON December 19, 2002 - 27 Gemini 42

With a Full Moon, we see a culmination or coming to a head the seeds planted during the previous New Moon cycle. Since this Full Moon is also a Lunar Eclipse, the energy is more intensified. The energy of Eclipses usually last over several months time. Some astrologers believe that Eclipse energy is triggered repeatedly over many years. Eclipses tend to make things happen and force change. Earthquakes and eruptions seem to correspond to Eclipse activity. Sometimes Eclipses are the "A Ha" we need to bring the unknown or undecided to culmination. I have noticed that Eclipses tend to deliver their message a few times, first on the day of the eclipse, then within 1 week, 3 months and within 1 year. Because this is a Lunar Eclipse, it will more than likely affect your emotional (moon) and internal focus in the area of life (house position) this Full Moon Lunar Eclipse falls in your birth chart. Lunar ruled Cancer is usually more affected by a Lunar Eclipse while Leo's are more affected by the Sun ruled Solar Eclipses. Since the December 19th Eclipse falls in the sign of Gemini and is Mercury ruled, duality, gossip, communications, siblings, neighbors, your neighborhood and short distance travel will be focal points. Watch for health issues involving lungs, hands, fingers, shoulders and the nervous system.

SABIAN SYMBOL FOR 28 GEMINI:

Society Granting Bankruptcy to Him, A Man Leaves the Court With Mixed Feelings.

When I read this Sabian symbol, I couldn't help but think of the recent Anti-terrorist Bill Mr. President Bush signed that would allow insurance companies to cover terrorist attacks. I think it takes a lot for anyone to file Bankruptcy. When you file Bankruptcy in the U.S. your credit is taken away from you. Credit cards can't be used for 3 years, I believe. (please, correct me if I'm wrong) Bankruptcy should be the very last resort when there are no other means to make a financial correction in our lives. Perhaps this symbol is reminding us that we need to make the correct decision because what we decide, or whatever legal correction we make, will have long-term ramifications, and consequences. We must make decisions we can live with over the long term. Even when a person decides to file bankruptcy, to forgive their accumulated and/or irresponsible debt there are mixed feelings. Perhaps your conscience kicks in and leaves you second guessing the choice.

What decisions must you make that will have long term consequences? Where does this Full Moon in Gemini fall in your birth chart?
